Innovation

The Supreme Court of the Republic of Uzbekistan expresses its sincere respect to the Kobe University Center for Social Systems Innovation.

In accordance with Resolution of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan No. PP-33 “On additional measures to introduce modern mechanisms for the judicial protection of the rights of citizens and business entities,” international cooperation is consistently developing during the broad discussion of the draft Code of Administrative Court Proceedings in a new edition.

Within the framework of the memorandum of cooperation signed between the Supreme Court of the Republic of Uzbekistan and the Kobe University Center for Social Systems Innovation, effective work is being carried out on topical issues of the judicial and legal system. In particular, 8 seminar sessions were successfully organized in October-December 2025, and a plan for additional seminars scheduled for May-December 2026 has been approved.

Within the framework of the seminar titled "Difference between Administrative Court Proceedings and Civil Court Proceedings," held on May 1 of this year, scientific and practical proposals and recommendations made by professors from Kobe University - Ms. Yuka Kaneko, Mr. Narufumi Kadomatsu, and Mr. Yukio Okitsu - are making a worthy contribution to the process of improving the administrative court system in the Republic of Uzbekistan.

In this regard, we would like to inform you that Ms. Yuka Kaneko, Mr. Narufumi Kadomatsu, and Mr. Yukio Okitsu have been recognized as international experts actively participating in the implementation of judicial and legal reforms in the Republic of Uzbekistan.

The professors' support and participation in ongoing reforms in the judicial sphere with their scientific and practical experience were highly appreciated and recognized as worthy of this status.
